The merchandise described herein is given to you on memorandum at your risk of all hazards, regardless of the cause of the loss or damage, only for examination and inspection by prospective purchase, upon the express condition that all such merchandise shall remain the property of E.R.L. Diamonds USA and shall be returned on demand, in full in its original form. Until the merchandise is returned and actually received by us, you are fully responsible therefore, and in the event of damage or loss, whether caused by you or another, whether or not under your control, you will indemnify us immediately by payment of the stated value which represents the extent of the actual loss and is not intended to constitute a price for sale of the merchandise. You acquire no right or authority to sell, hypothecate or otherwise dispose of the merchandise, or any other part thereof, by memorandum or otherwise it being expressly understood that regardless of other transaction or prior trade customs, no credit is extended with respect to this merchandise. A sale of all or any portion of the merchandise shall occur only if and when we agree and you shall have received from us a separate invoice. A subsequent sale or any specific part of the merchandise shall not affect the terms hereof with respect to the balance hereof. Receipt of the merchandise constitutes your agreement to the foregoing terms which represent the entire contract with respect to the merchandise herein described and which can not be varied by oral statements, dealing with respect to other merchandise or any contrary custom of trade. This is not an invoice or a bill of sale.
